REVIEW OF LABOUR ECONOMICS AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Labour Lectures 2007

Every year, LABOUR organizes a set of “LABOUR Lectures”, aimed at graduate students and young researchers. These Lectures are meant to provide a broad overview of important lines of research for labor economists. The 2005 LABOUR Lectures were given by Professor Richard Blundell (University College London) and Professor Charles Manski (Northwestern University), the 2006 lecture by Professor Jean-Marc Robin (University College London and University of Paris I), and the 2007 lectures by Professor Martin Browning (University of Oxford), Professor Christopher Flinn (New York University) and Professor Zvi Eckstein (University of Minnesota and University of Tel Aviv). The invited lecturers for the 2008 LABOUR LECTURES are Professor Joshua Angrist (MIT) and Professor David Card (University of California, Berkeley).

Professor Zvi Eckstein (University of Minnesota and University of Tel Aviv)
